These days, bridal couples are requesting weddings heavy on atmosphere, choreographed for maximum effect and beauty, and completely personalized to match their individual styles. But whether it's a themed wedding or a traditional affair, the food, flowers, decorations and all the trappings should be simply divine.

Bernard's Market & Café in Glen Head is far more than an emporium of the delicious. Its talented catering and event planner Patrizia Neuwirth can orchestrate your entire celebration, going beyond fantastic food to the perfect setting, flowers and music. Menus are anything but fixed: "We have two great chefs and we're incredibly flexible," says Neuwirth, a trained chef herself. "Lately, we have a lot of couples requesting organic, vegetarian or really adventurous fare, along with the season's regional specialties, like seafood and local produce. And we can do anything you want."
